

lives through vocational and academic training.

Each year, Job Corps serves over 60,000 young people and nearly three million Americans have benefited from this service over the past 45 years.

Job Corps is considered the Nation's largest and most successful high school dropout recovery and youth empowerment program.

To celebrate Job Corps' 45th anniversary, I am hosting Sean Barnett in my office on September 23rd.

Sean was one of 60 students selected nationwide to shadow Members of Congress for the day.

Sean is currently an Advanced Career Training (ACT) student at the Cleveland Job Corps Academy. He is majoring in business and hopes to become an investment banker.

Sean has held several important student leader positions including Floor Leader in his dorm, Sergeant at Arms of the Student Government Association, Proctor, and Treasurer of the Student Government.

It is an honor to host a current Job Corps student and to designate the day that Sean Barnett interned in my office as National Job Corps Day. I wish Sean the best of luck and congratulate him for his involvement with Job Corps.

IN RECOGNITION OF MELVIN J. LARSON'S 54 YEARS OF SERVICE TO UNITED CEREBRAL PALSY OF WILL COUNTY

HON. DEBORAH L. HALVORSON

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 24, 2009

Mrs. HALVORSON. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Melvin J. Larson for his fifty-four years of service as a board member and founder of United Cerebral Palsy of Will County, now known as United Cerebral Palsy of Illinois Prairieland.

Melvin Larson's life has been one of service to others. He has said, "To make life a little easier for someone, I hope I can make some contribution to that end." That is exactly what he did. He moved to Joliet, Illinois in 1954 where he became the head of Joliet Junior College's (JJC) Department of Physical Science. Upon retirement in 1975 from a successful career at JJC, he began a quest to help others.

Melvin Larson formed the first Will County chapter of the United Cerebral Palsy organization, with a vision to provide an education to children with disabilities. The organization began with just six families, but quickly grew to 35. It was not long before they outgrew their single room in the former Rehn School and began utilizing an entire grade school building. Thousands of children have benefited from the school throughout the years, and today more than 60 children are currently enrolled.

The dedication, service, and commitment exhibited by Melvin Larson throughout his life merit recognition and should be showcased as an example for selflessness unto others. That is why today we must honor Mel's vision to provide an education to children with disabilities.

HONORING THE NEW HAVEN ALUMNAE CHAPTER OF DELTA SIGMA THETA SORORITY ON THEIR 50TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 24, 2009

Ms. DELAURO. Madam Speaker, I am pleased to rise today to extend my sincere congratulations to the New Haven Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority as they celebrate their 50th Anniversary. The Delta Sigma Theta Sorority is a non-profit organization dedicated to enriching our community through community service.

In its fifty year history, the New Haven Alumnae Chapter has focused its attention on the changing and diverse needs of our community. Their mission has been to actively engage the community—particularly young people—in public service. Their goals are rooted in the understanding that our communities thrive when every member contribute to its success. Since its inception, this outstanding organization has awarded over $250,000 in college scholarships; has developed and implemented multiple programs benefiting our youth including Delta Academy and the GEMS mentoring program; Project S.E.E. (Science and Everyday Experiences) workshops; as well as their signature "18 and Registered" voter registration campaign. With each of the programs offered, the New Haven Alumnae Chapter is opening the doors of opportunity to our community's young people.

The membership of the New Haven Alumnae Chapter includes some of our community's most prominent community advocates—many of whom dedicate both their professional and personal lives to public service. These women stand as role models for every member of our community, but particularly for our young people. They inspire us with their deep commitment to community and compassion for others. Our communities would not be the same without organizations such as the New Haven Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. Their efforts make it a better place to live, learn, and grow.

It is with great pleasure that I stand today to recognize the invaluable contributions the New Haven Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority have made to our community and to extend my heartfelt congratulations on their 50th Anniversary. They have made a real difference in our community and I wish them all the best for many more years of success.

IN RECOGNITION OF CHIEF BEARD'S 30 YEARS OF BRAVE AND SELFLESS SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITIES OF KANKAKEE AND BOURBONNAIS

HON. DEBORAH L. HALVORSON

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 24, 2009

Mrs. HALVORSON. Madam Speaker, this month marks Chief Joe Beard's 30 years of brave and selfless service to citizens of Kankakee and Bourbonnais, Illinois. Today, I join these communities in thanking Joe for his dedication and outstanding commitment.

Joe did not grow up dreaming about being a police officer. But in the midst of studying to become a history teacher, Joe felt the calling to enter law enforcement. After receiving a law enforcement administration degree from Western Illinois University, he was hired by the Kankakee County Sheriff's Department, where he served for several years before briefly pursuing a real estate career. But soon Joe was back fighting to protect Illinoisans. And in 1979, at the age of 27, Joe was named Police Chief of Bourbonnais, Illinois.

Whether it was responding to a massive train wreck on a spring night ten years ago that left eleven dead, 122 injured, and a pile-up of twisted steel and train cars in its wake across the Illinois prairie, or responding to a routine traffic stop, Chief Beard has exhibited tremendous courage and selflessness. During Joe's tenure as Chief, the police department has doubled, expanding personnel to answer new challenges and better serve citizens. Chief Beard, along with the Kankakee Area Metropolitan Enforcement Group (KAMEG), has been a leader in fighting drug crime.

Those like Chief Joe Beard keep our communities safe and provide families piece of mind to enjoy their lives. We all owe a profound debt to Joe Beard. On behalf of the entire 11th Congressional District, I thank Joe as he continues to serve the people of Bourbonnais.

IN RECOGNITION OF AMBASSADOR IRINA BOKOVA OF BULGARIA

HON. JOE WILSON

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 24, 2009

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Madam Speaker, on Tuesday, September 22, 2009, Irina Bokova, Bulgaria's Ambassador to France, was elected the director general of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO). As the first female director of UNESCO, Ambassador Bokova brings her diplomatic and cultural knowledge as a former foreign minister of Bulgaria and her work in helping to bring Bulgaria into the European Union and the North American Treaty Organization (NATO).

As co-chair of the Congressional Bulgaria Caucus, I want to congratulate the people of Bulgaria and Ambassador Bokova for her success. Having visited Bulgaria first as an International Republican Institute election observer in June 1990 and since, I have seen firsthand this young democracy emerge from
